

August 2017

TETAF General Meeting Aug. 15

TETAF will meet in Austin August 15 for the quarterly general meeting. The meeting is hosted in conjunction with the quarterly Governor's EMS & Trauma Advisory Council (GETAC) meetings.

TETAF general meetings are open to the public and free of charge. Light refreshments will be served.

Read More

Free GETAC Live-Stream

Can't make it to Austin for the upcoming GETAC meetings? TETAF provides a complimentary live-stream available to our stakeholders online.

Read More

Your Input Needed

TETAF is seeking input from all stakeholders as we prepare for the 2019 legislative session. Please complete this brief survey on your legislative involvement and recommendations.

Read More

John Huss Named Associate Commissioner at DSHS

Jonathan R. Huss has been named Associate Commissioner for Regulatory Services at the Department of State Health Services.

Read More

Texas Home to Five of Most Affordable Medical Schools

A recent study ranked the affordability of the nations' medical schools and five of the top ten are located in Texas.

Read More

Hospital Data Management

TETAF is partnering with RAC V to offer an additional Hospital Data Management Course this year. Save-the-date for October 5-6 in South Padre. More course info on our website.

Read More

Submit Nominations for Texas EMS Awards

The Department of State Health Services is currently accepting nominations for the 2017 Texas EMS Awards.

Read More

Texas Perinatal Services Update

Learn more about our survey process and available resources on our new Texas Perinatal Services website.

Read More

UPCOMING EVENTS

August 15 TETAF General Meeting (Austin)

August 15 Texas Trauma Coordinator's Forum (Austin)

August 16-18 Governor's EMS & Trauma Advisory Council (Austin)

October 5-6 Hospital Data Management Course (South Padre)